

biogears™

Output wav. file locally

Start

Initialize the following: Biogears engine, Biogears Patient, KBMakerClient, Microsoft Azure speech and audio configuration.

Initialize "Patient" Constructor & Store with relevant variables affecting speech characteristics or KB

Update "Patient" information for speech characteristics or kbID

Convert received speech and store as String.

Is there any input from mic?

False

Initialize following variables: kbID, response, speaker, style, speechSpeed

True

Return String of response based on GCS severity and stroke location.
Assign Speaker 1

Does received speech match question for following special function: Memory, serial7s, calculate ?

False

Does received speech match the an existing question in assigned kb ?

True

Return matched key
Assign Speaker 1 / Speaker 2

False

Assign Speaker 1
Return String "I don't know"

Speaker 1 or Speaker 2?

Speaker 2

Assign normal voice speech, customer service style, Aria voice as nurse in OR

False

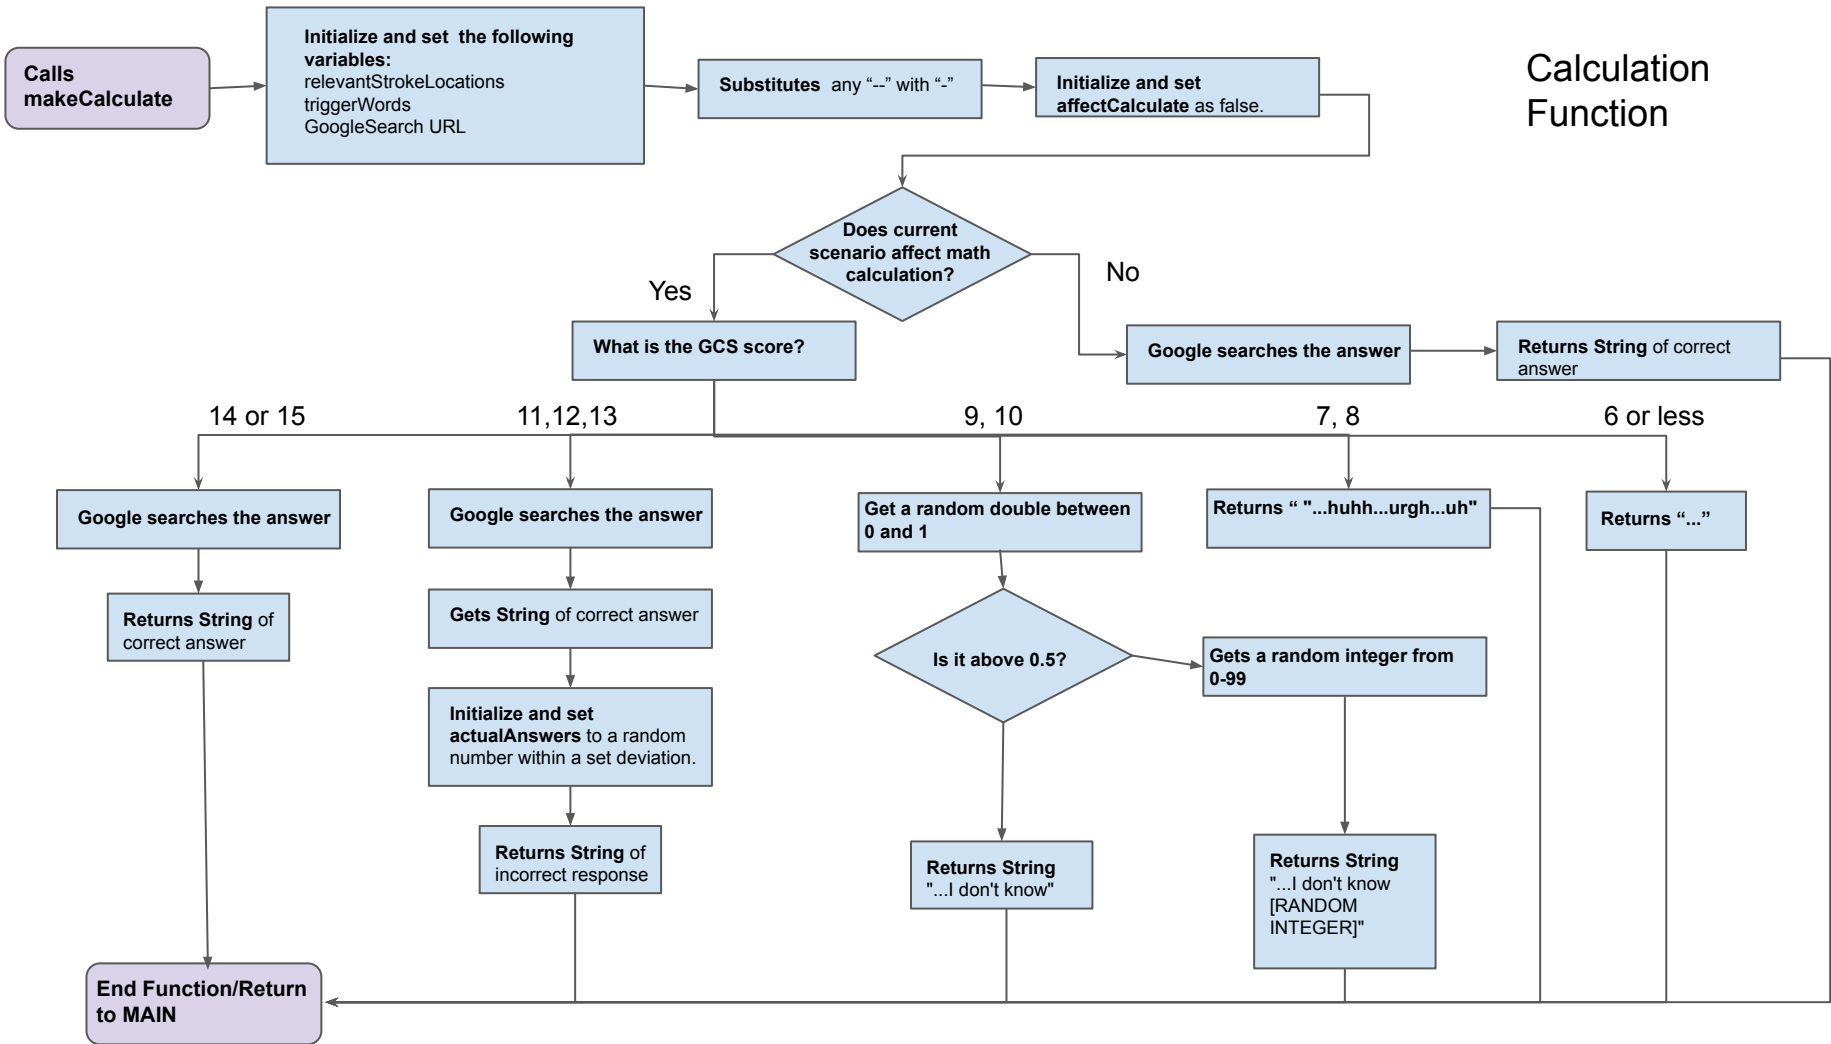

Does current scenario need slurred speech?

True

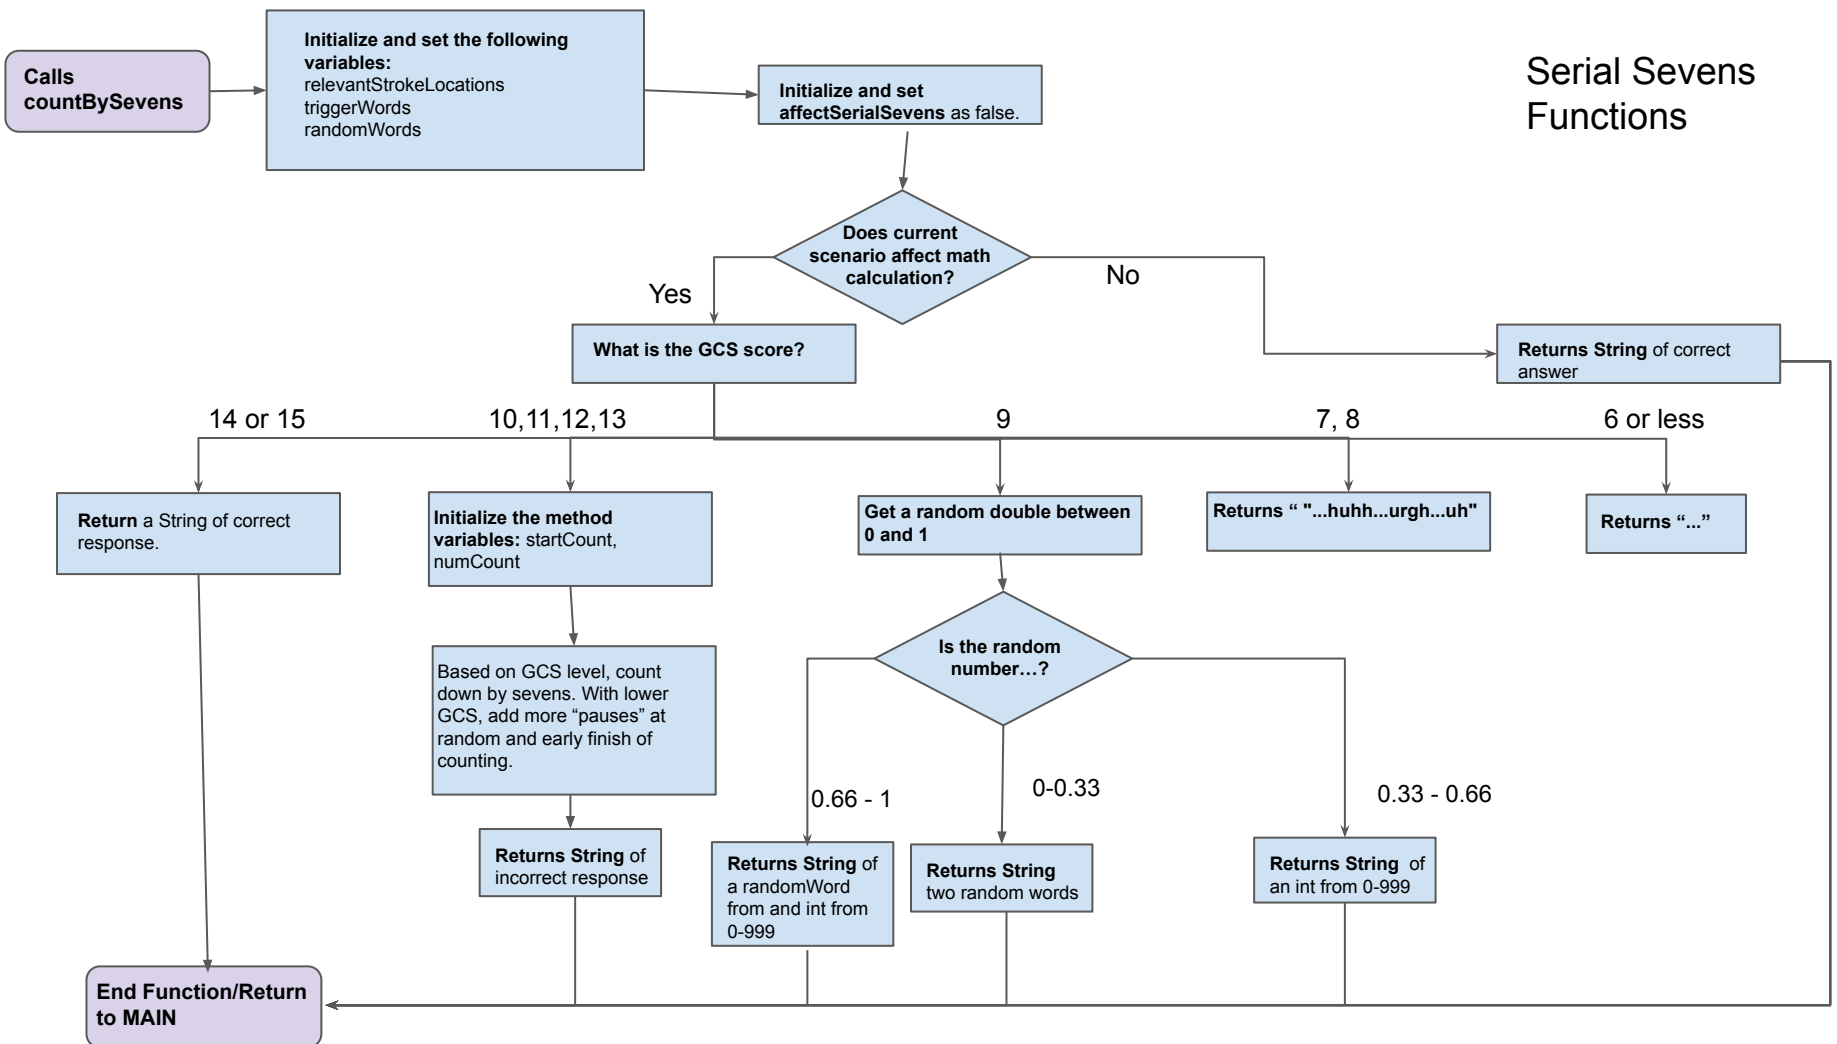

Return String of modified response based on GCS severity and stroke location.

Write xml for Microsoft Azure for wave output using assigned speech style, voice type, speech speed, and response.

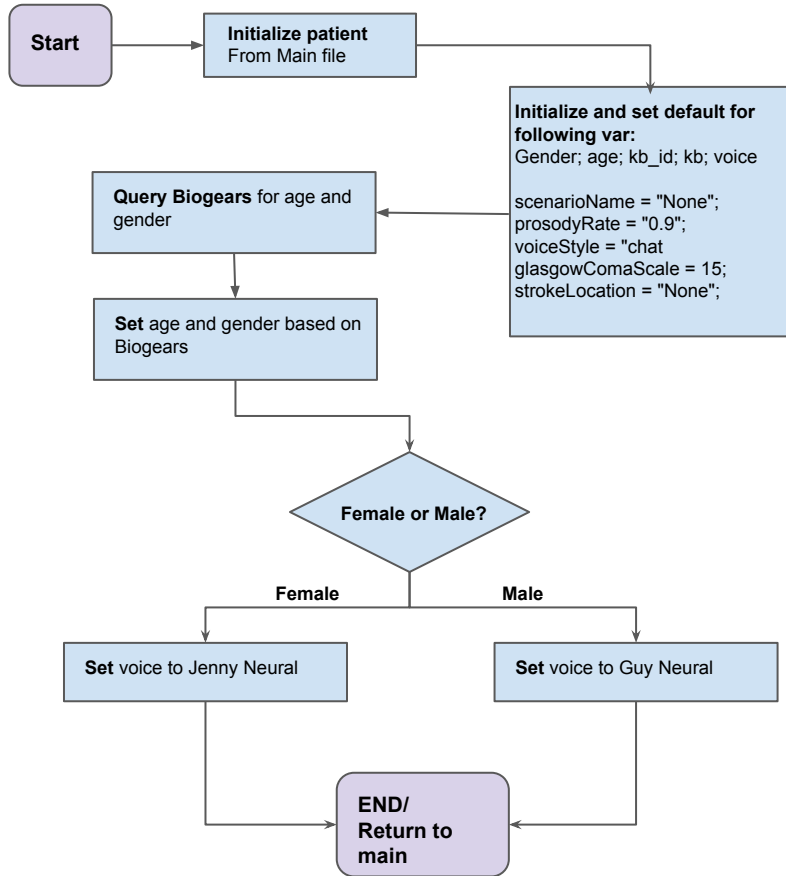

Convert xml → .wav file via Microsoft Azure

Serial Sevens Functions

Patient Constructor Initialization (1st time)

Patient Update Method

